

ADVANTAGE

Make your products the first choice with our PET FOOD PACKAGING

Tempo Plastics flexible packaging options for pet food offer high impact, attention-grabbing graphics that your customers look for. Our stand-up pouches are lighter than traditional paper formats and provide superior barriers from moisture as well as greater food safety.

Pouches can be manufactured in virtually any size or configuration. With an increase in pet food options on shelves and consumers increasingly savvy about what they are feeding their pets, it's vital to have your product stand out. Tempo Plastics pouches will provide you with excellent shelf appeal and high quality packaging to give you the marketing edge.

Benefits include:

- Award Winning Graphic Capabilities
- Strength & Durability
- Wide Selection & Features
